

WATER POLO WA CODE OF CONDUCT

Last updated: October 2015

WPWAI Code of Conduct

Water Polo Australia (WPA) and Water Polo Western Australia (WPWAI) are committed to the requirements for the protection of the health, safety and wellbeing of all our members. To achieve that, we have a Member Protection Policy, the goal of which is to provide a safe and comfortable environment so that all members can compete and enjoy our great sport in a harassment free environment.

WPA's Member Protection Policy is freely available via both the WPWAI and WPA websites, or on request from WPWAI offices. We require all WPWAI members to abide by its guidelines and processes. WPWAI Website is: http://www.waterpolowa.asn.au

A key element of the Member Protection Policy is the Codes of Conduct that apply to all of us, in the varying roles we take.

It is the expectation of WPWAI that all persons associated with our sport abide by the Codes of Conduct detailed below. Serious non-compliance with these guidelines will be referred to WPWAI for formal investigation and resolution under the Member Protection Policy processes.

Player / Athlete Code of Conduct

	Diau by the rules
•	Play by the rules
•	Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official after the competition
•	Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviours in any sport.
•	Work equally hard for yourself and / or your team. Your team's performance will benefit so will you
•	Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition
•	Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
•	Cooperate with your coach, teammates and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
•	Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and coaches.
•	Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion

Parent / Guardian Code of Conduct

•	Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not yours
-	Encourage children to participate, do not force them
-	Focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing
•	Encourage children always to play according to the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence
•	Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition
•	Remember that children learn best by example. Appreciate good performances and skilful plays by all participants
•	Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities
•	Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise
•	Show appreciation for volunteer coaches, officials and administrators. Without them, your child could not participate
